White Wine

Guest White Wine

Grüner Veltliner, Weingut Frank, Weinviertel DAC 2025 (Austria) 44

The Grüner Veltliner grape has a remarkable ability to reflect its terroirs. Here, the Frank family reinterpret it within the context of the Weinviertel region, making the estate's quintessential Grüner, emblematic of their distinctive style. Fragrant and floral on the nose with elderflower and citrus. Apple and pear flavours, with hints of cardamom and white pepper. Green herbs – dill and bay leaves – with a soft texture and satisfying saline finish. It's a great match for fried, as well as baked fish, shellfish and spicy food.

Guest Red Wine

Licantén Cabernet Franc, Idahue Estate La Ronciere 2023 (Chile) 44

Elegant Cabernet Franc made from slow-ripening grapes from right by the sea in Licantén - a unique newly recognised DO where Viña La Ronciere is the only producer. This Cabernet Franc is blended with a small proportion of Cabernet Sauvignon and Syrah before maturing for 12 months in old French oak which softens the tannins. The result is a supple, spicy and intensely concentrated wine with a distinct coastal freshness.
